CAG Report on Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan

2934. SHRI S.S. AHLUWALIA: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the report of CAG for the last year observed that the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (SSA) failed to create the desired impact;

(b) if so, the details thereof indicating the actions contemplated, if any, for more effective implementation of the scheme, in future;

(c) the details of the States found to be the worst accomplishers of the objectives envisaged in the SSA indicating principal areas of shortcomings in their respective implementations;

(d) the details of the States which are found to be implementing SSA satisfactorily indicating the salient features of their performance parameters; and

(e) the funds allocation for SSA for 2007-08?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MD. ALI ASHRAF FATMI): (a) and (b) the CAG's Performance Audit Report on the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (SSA) looked at the programme in its initial years only, where it was not feasible to assess the programmes impact against goals set for 2007 or 2010. That the SSA was able to reduce the number of out of school children dramatically from 4.4 crore during 2001 to 1.34 crore by 2005 was not fully understood or appreciated by the CAG report. The SSA is being implemented with full vigour in all its components.

(c) and (d) An Educational Development Index (EDI) has been developed to track the progress of States towards the goal of universal elementary education based on access, infrastructure, teacher and outcome indicators. As per the EDI, Bihar, Jharkhand, Arunachal Pradesh, West Bengal and Uttar Pradesh are the lowest in raking whereas Kerala, Delhi, Tamil Nadu, Pondicherry and Chandigarh are at the top end.

(e) BE for 2007-08 for SSA is Rs. 10,671.00 crores in the Union Budget.
